

ORCHARD HOUSE SCHOOL

Come and join this thriving IAPS prep school in Chiswick, West London. The successful candidate, who must be a qualified inspirational teacher with very clear communication skills, will teach mainly English in KS2 and KS1 but will have the opportunity to be involved with EYFS. Up to date knowledge of synthetic phonics and the 11+ Common Entrance syllabus would be an advantage. A willingness to take part in extra-curricular life is important.

This position is to begin on 14 April 2010; a minimum of one term is required but a long term post is available.

“Orchard House School has many outstanding features, meets its aims and aspirations exceedingly well and provides a high quality education for its pupils.... Leadership and management are outstanding, supporting the aims of the school and giving it clear educational direction. (ISI, June 2009)”

Applicants should go to the Orchard House School website at www.orchardhs.org.uk to download a job description, an application form, a set of pre-interview questions and a medical questionnaire. The closing date for applications will be Wednesday 10 February. The completed application and medical forms should be emailed to jobs@orchardhs.org.uk. The school is committed to safe-guarding and promoting the welfare of children.
